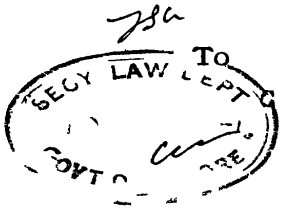
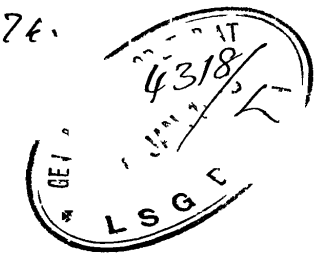
MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONER
Bangalore City





To

Narayanaswamy Naidu, Esq , B A , B L ,
SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT
OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE, LAW DEPARTMENT, BANGALORE

SIR,

I have the honour to state that Mr Hassan Ahmed Khan, Foreman & Lorry Driver of this Municipality on Rs 50/- per month received serious injuries on his forehead from the stones thrown by the mob while he was on duty in putting out the fire at the Chickpet Post Office, Bangalore City, that occurred on 17-8-1942 during the disturbances in this City He was subsequently admitted into the Minto Hospital as In-patient This mishap necessitated the Foreman to apply for leave from 18-8-1942 up to end of 19-11-1942, i e , for three months and two days in all Since the Foreman is borne in the Temporary Lorry Establishment renewable year after year, he is not entitled to the leave with allowances for the whole period, but is entitled to two months privilege leave and furlough on half pay for the remaining one month and two days under Article 197 (b) and Exception (1) to article 149 of Mysore Service Regulation But the Official having represented that it would hit him hard financially if any cut is made in his salary in these hard days, as he had to meet medical bills besides high rise in price of necessaries of life and that full allowances may be given to him as a special case for the entire period of his absence, a proposal for granting granting full allowances to Mr. Hassan Ahmed Khan for the period of his absence as a special case, was placed before the Managing Committee and the Municipal Council at their meetings held on 24-11-1942 and 26-12-1942 and they have approved of the same The case of this Official is a hard one deserving of sympathetic consideration

Copies of the said resolutions are enclosed herein for favour of obtaining sanction of the Government to the resolution of the Council

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
